

WDPrx Monthly Newsletter August 2017

WDPrx continues to expand business opportunities with industry outreach and news stories highlighting our full range of development, manufacturing and testing capabilities.

Click here to read the most recent update.

Working Quality With Confidence

Hurricane Harvey Hits Houston

Operations at the WDPrx facility in Houston, TX are affected by the tropical storm with business to re-open as soon as possible. All employees and facilities are unharmed. Latest news as of 8/28 shows water receding from the property.

Latest News About Hurricane Harvey

Expanding Quality Assurance Department Team

The QA Team manages all aspects of pharmaceutical development, manufacture and distribution that affects drug quality. We are adding para technicians in response to increased client demand.

Related: QA Team Recognizes Quality Issues Before They Affect Final Product

National Association of Chain Drug Stores (NACDS) Show

The WDPrx business development team met with major manufacturers from around the country at this annual trade show to promote our development and production capabilities.

Related: WDPrx Contract Manufacturing and DSCSA-Compliant Packaging

Upcoming Contract Pharma Show September 14th-15th

